ANZSCDB Awards at ComBio in Adelaide on 2-5 October 2017

A. ANZSCDB Research and Presentation Awards

1. The Toshiya Yamada Early Career Award - value $500

Best oral presentation in the fields of Cell or Developmental Biology by a junior postdoc (within 5 years of completing PhD)

2. The David Walsh Student Prize - value $350

Best oral presentation in the fields of Cell or Developmental Biology by a student

3. The Keith Dixon Prize in Developmental Biology - value $350

Best poster presentation in the field of Developmental Biology by a student

4. The Cell Biology Student Poster Prize – value $350

Best poster presentation in the field of Cell Biology by a student

All Postdoc and Student members who submit abstracts as presenting author at ComBio are eligible for these awards. All presenting authors are encouraged to indicate on their abstract submission form that they would be prepared to give an ORAL presentation, although this is not obligatory for award eligibility.

These awards are announced and presented at the closing ceremony of the ComBio2017 meeting.

B. ComBio Student Travel Awards

The ANZSCDB will consider applications by its student members to contribute to their registration for the ComBio2017 conference, subject to certain eligibility requirements (see below). The total number of bursaries awarded will be determined by the availability of funding.

To apply, forward this completed Application Form and your Submitted Abstract as a single .pdf file to the Society Secretary (A.Beverdam@unsw.edu.au) on or before the early bird registration deadline.
